YEARLY AFFIDAVIT OF CLE COMPLIANCE

The Wyoming GAL Program requires attorneys appointed to any of the GAL Program Panels to obtain five (5) Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits of live, child-related, GAL Program-approved training each calendar year in order to be certified to continue appointment to GAL Program cases. Carryover hours are not accepted.

This affidavit must be submitted annually before close of business each December 31st. Submission by this date guarantees certification with the GAL Program for one year.

Failure to submit this affidavit yearly, or complete the requisite number of approved amount of CLE hours will result in termination of contract or employment with the GAL Program, and/or removal from any of the GAL Program Panels to which you are appointed.

By signing this form you certify and acknowledge that you have received and read this document, are familiar with and understand its contents, and that you have on file with the Wyoming State Bar proof of having obtained the required number of CLE hours as described herein and listed by you below.

I have listed below live, child-related, GAL Program-approved training credits totaling _____ hours, and I certify that all credits listed below were obtained during Calendar Year _____.
